

Dr Lewis OAM will speak on 'Heroes of the Hour - brave deeds during the 19th February 1942 Japanese raid on Darwin'.

Monday 18 February 12.10pm - 1pm

Book sales & signing

lunchtime talk

with Dr Tom Lewis OAM

Dr Tom Lewis OAM has a long association with Northern Territory history. Publications include: children's novel 'Darwin Sayonara', 'Wrecks in Darwin Waters, Sensuikan I-124'—an account of the submarine sunk outside the harbour and 'A War at Home'—an outline of the two air raids of 19 February 1942. Tom has worked as a dive master, high school teacher and naval officer and in 2004 was awarded the Order of Australia Medal for services to naval history.

Bombing of Darwin 66th anniversary 19 February 2008

VENUE: Northern Territory Library, Parliament House.
Telephone: 1800 019 155, email: ntinfo.dlghs@nt.gov.au
The Library is open to everyone. No admission fee.

